Salutatorian

Kelly A. Wypych

The 1993 Salutatorian was Kelly Wypych. Kelly maintained a grade point average of 3.984.

Kelly has been a very active member of many school organizations. She has been on the student council, Students Against Drunk Driving, Nature Appreciation Club, N.H.S., the steering committee, Octagon Club and School Improvement Team. During her senior year, she has held the position of National Honor Society president and Student Council secretary/treasurer. Kelly has appeared in three school musicals and the senior play. She also played on the softball, football, and quiz bowl teams.

Kelly has gained much recognition for her achievements. She has received the Xerox Award and three Marysville Chamber of Commerce awards. She also has won a Presidential Scholarship from Albion, and was a National Merit Semi-finalist.

Kelly plans to attend University of Michigan or Albion to study medicine and English.

Kelly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Barbara Wypych.

American Legion Award

Senior Ryan Greenwood was the recipient of the American Legion Award for his outstanding citizenship and academic achievement.

Ryan was involved in varsity football, basketball and track. Ryan was also a member of student council, National Honor Society, and the class of 1993's steering committee.

He plans on attending Michigan State University after graduation. Ryan is hoping to study marketing or packaging.

He is the son of Rod and Linda Greenwood.

Senior Kelly Wypych was the recipient of the American Legion Award for her outstanding citizenship and academic achievement.

Kelly was involved in the Nature Appreciation Club, S.A.D.D., softball, and the School Improvement Team. She was the president of the National Honor Society, the secretary/treasurer of student council and was a trainer for the varsity football team.

Kelly plans on attending the University of Michigan to study medicine.

She is the daughter of Robert and Barbara Wypych.

Dansforth Award

Mike Ureel was the recipient of the Dansforth Award for his leadership potential. The award is known for its "Dare To Be Great" theme.

Mike was involved in J.V. football and the cross country teams. He was captain of the Quiz Bowl team and was in the National Honor Society.

He plans to attend Michigan Technological University to study chemical engineering.

Mike is the son of Gerald and Carrie Ureel.

Mike
Ureel

Emily Huysentruyt

Emily Huysentruyt was the recipient of the Dansforth Award for her leadership potential. The award is known for its "Dare to be Great" theme.

Viking Service Award

Kelly
Crocker

Senior Kelly Crocker was awarded the Viking Service Award for her involvement on the Viking Yearbook staff. Kelly worked on the yearbook all four years of high school. She has been the sports and sophomore editors in years past and was this year's editor in chief. Yearbook advisor Mr. Schmorow said, "Ever since her freshman year, Kelly has always demonstrated leadership capabilities when it comes to publishing the yearbook." Kelly was the president of the SCAL Student Council, a member of S.A.D.D., the class of 1993 steering committee, student council, the Senior play, she was involved in the DARE program and has modeled for Marion's Studios. Kelly has gone to Mexico on a mission's trip and was a Sunday School assistant. She also is a avid Marysville football fan.

Kelly stated, "Yearbook has been a great learning experience and very rewarding. It gets a little stressful around deadline time, but it's all worth it. I've heard people say, 'a picture is worth a thousand words' and a yearbook is full of picture so it really says a lot. It's more than just a book. It saves and reminds you of a lot of good times with special people, great memories that are treasured for a life time. High school is supposed to be one of the best times in a persons life and the yearbook captures it. It's fun to see people when they first look through the book and smile when they see something that they like. It's rewarding to know that I was part of that."

Kelly enjoys spending time with her family and friends. She likes going to sporting events and getting involved. One of Kelly's favorite people is football coach Walt Braun.

After graduation Kelly plans on attending St. Clair County Community College and then transferring to a major university to study merchandising or maybe journalism.

She is a daughter of Dan and Christine Crocker.

Senior Officers Direct Final Year

The officers of the class of 1993 strongly agreed on this topic....and that was to make their senior year the best.

Jodi Demeter and Michael Smith worked together serving as president and vice president.

Jodi stated, "I enjoyed being the senior class president and appreciated being elected to lead our class through its most memorable year. It was an honor and a great memory that I will always treasure."

Valerie Alderson was the secretary and Angela Kilbourn took care of the senior accounts as treasurer.

Together, the four officers worked hard to organize meetings and lead their fellow classmates to, like Valerie stated, "...the best year ever".

The Homecoming festivities started off the year with the organization and preparation of building the float....and what a job they did....2nd place for the senior float.

Many hours of preparation were spent on fund raisers, the Senior Luncheon, and especially the Senior Prom.

Angela Kilbourn stated, "I enjoyed being an officer for three years. It was a great memory to be an officer".

Valerie added, "I was glad to take part in our senior year activities and help lead the class the best I could. I was hoping to make our senior year the most memorable ever".

Senior Octopus Grabs Second Place

The Senior Class of 1993 built their float at the home of Andy Emery. Float building took place the week of October 5th through the 9th.

The Senior Class chose the theme, "Under The Sea". They constructed a float consisting of an octopus, treasure chest, and goal post. The Senior Class captured 2nd place for their efforts.

Mr. Emery commented, "It was a lot of fun to have float building at my house. It's too bad we didn't win, but I think everyone enjoyed themselves."

It was a great effort put forth by everyone.

Girls' and Boys' State

Jill Herbert, Angela Schmorow, and Kelly Wypych attended Girls' State in June.

Girls' and Boys' State took place at the beginning of the summer. It gave the members a chance to participate in mock governments. They participated not only on city level but also on county and state levels.

Problems were presented to the cities, counties, and state. It was the job of the delegates to create solutions for these problems.

Rob Warsinski said, "I made a lot of friends with whom I still keep in touch."

Class Song

“Don’t You Forget About Me”

Don’t You Forget About Me by Simple Minds

Won’t you come see about me
I’ll be alone, dancing, you know it baby.
Tell me your troubles & doubts
Given everything, inside & out
And love’s strange, so real in the dark
Think of good tender things
That we were working on
Slow chains may pull us apart
When our life gets into your heart, baby

Don’t you forget about me
Don’t - Don’t - Don’t - Don’t
Don’t you forget about me

Will you stand above me?
Look my way, never love me?
Rain keeps falling, rain keeps falling
Down, down, down

Will you recognize me?
Call my name, or walk on by?
Rain keeps falling, rain keeps falling
Down, down, down

Don’t you try and pretend
It’s my feeling we’ll win in the end
I won’t harm you or touch your defenses
Vanity, Insecurity, ah

Don’t you forget about me
I’ll be alone, dancing you know it, baby
Going to take you apart
I’ll put us back, together at heart

Don’t you forget about me
Don’t - Don’t - Don’t - Don’t
Don’t you forget about me
But you walk on by....
Will you call my name?....

Junior Royalty

Princess Jill Pond

Jill Pond was this year's Junior Class Princess on the Homecoming Court.

Jill is a member of Student Council, her class steering committee, S.A.D.D., Nature Appreciation, and National Honor Society. In her spare time she plays piano and spends time with family and friends.

Jill was escorted by her parents, Ken and June Pond.

When Jill was asked what she enjoyed most about being on the court she said, "I got a chance to become better acquainted with other girls and gentlemen that were on the court".

After high school Jill plans to pursue a career in international relations.

Prince Dave Jolicoeur

Dave Jolicoeur was elected as this year's Junior Class Prince on the Homecoming Court.

Dave is very active in the classroom and in athletics.

In the fall he plays football, in the winter—hockey, and in spring—baseball. Dave is also a member of National Honor Society.

He likes camping and spending time with his family and friends.

Dave stated, "The most enjoyable thing about being elected was knowing that my classmates think high enough of me to elect me as their representative.

Dave was escorted by his parents, Bud and Karen Jolicoeur.

Juniors Take 3rd

This year's junior class float theme was "Whale On 'Em". Their float consisted of a whale, the sea, and many sea creatures.

The float building took place at Shannon Palmateer's house and the class was very thankful.

Shannon said, "Many people came to float building this year. The people that did come had a lot of fun. I wish more would have come to take part. We had some confusion in the beginning of the week, but the end result was one that pleased everyone. We came up with an excellent float that should have taken first place."

Patty Pozios, class president, stated, "It was a lot of fun this year, except the frustration, but we pulled through it again. This year went the best of all three especially considering the problems".

Juniors Are Almost There!

Juniors Ryan Cooley and Ben Delor impersonate "Wayne" and "Garth" after watching "Waynes World".

Kim Knuth, Shannon Palmateer, Patty Pozios, Abbey Herr, Megan Reppenhagen, and Mari Gossman work hard.

Junior Sera Young "strikes a pose" in the middle of the hall before she rushes to her next class.

Kim Knuth, Sarah Fults and Lindsey Clayton at the Cros-Lex football game, cheer for the mighty Vikings.

Sera Young, Carley Cisco, Natalie Parmiske, Michelle Zimmer, Stacey Cain, and Stacy DeShon keep warm.

Junior Charlie Jakubiak proves to everyone that boys can "strut their stuff" too.

Jenny Shaft and Stacy DeShon show their support for their favorite baseball team at Stacy's house.

Mrs. Lucienne Kiefer's Honors English class demonstrates what teachers hate to see before a class.

Stepping Up the Ladder....

Mr. Meier's 7th hour American History class is just full of Juniors ready to learn about the past.

Junior Louie Telegadas makes his way through the library to use the vertical files for a assignment.

Junior Richie Radatz waits for his turn to use the copying machine with a smile.

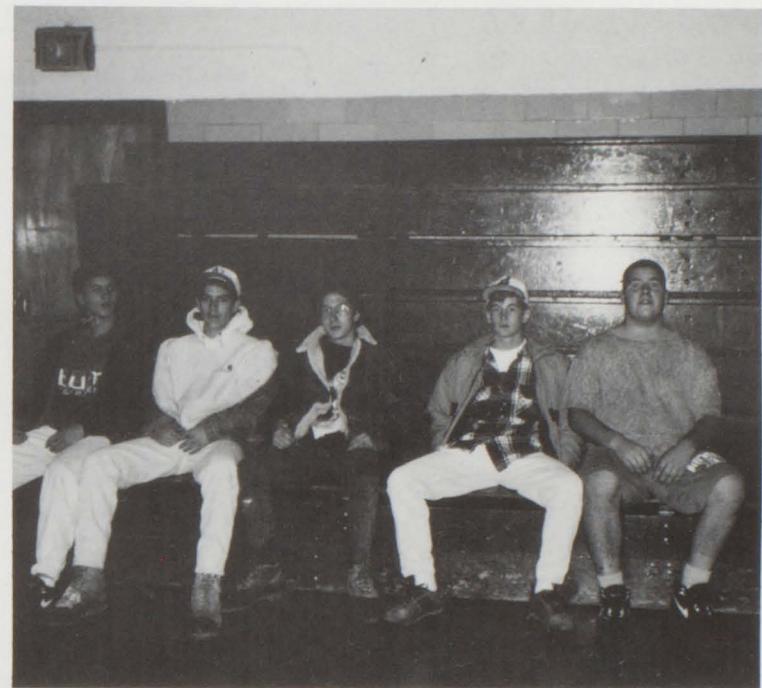

Junior John Hincherick looks very happy after he slams the volleyball making the final point.

Junior Jeff Richards types frantically in his Keyboarding class so he can finish his assignment.

....We're Almost There!

A group of Juniors sit and wait patiently to be excused from Fall Team Sports.

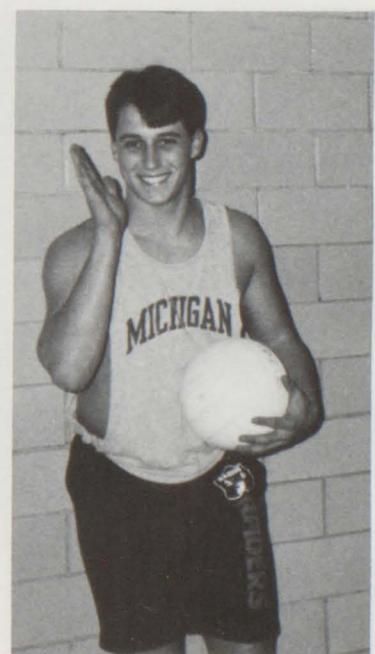

Junior Todd Rosbury smiles and waves rubbing his win in the opposing teams face.

Junior Abbey Herr pulls out her finished typing assignment in her Keyboarding class.

Juniors Lindsey Clayton and Patty Pozios smile very big because they are on the way to Lakeside Mall.

The Junior Prom

“How Do You Talk To An Angel”

Jennifer Head and Chris Yeager take five to rest their feet from dancing too much.

Sarah Fults, Telly Schenck, Lindsey Clayton, Carrie Weyand, and Kim Knuth show off their garters.

The song “How Do You Talk To An Angel” by Heights was the theme of this year’s Junior Prom which took place on January 22, 1993. The Junior Prom colors were royal purple, gold and silver.

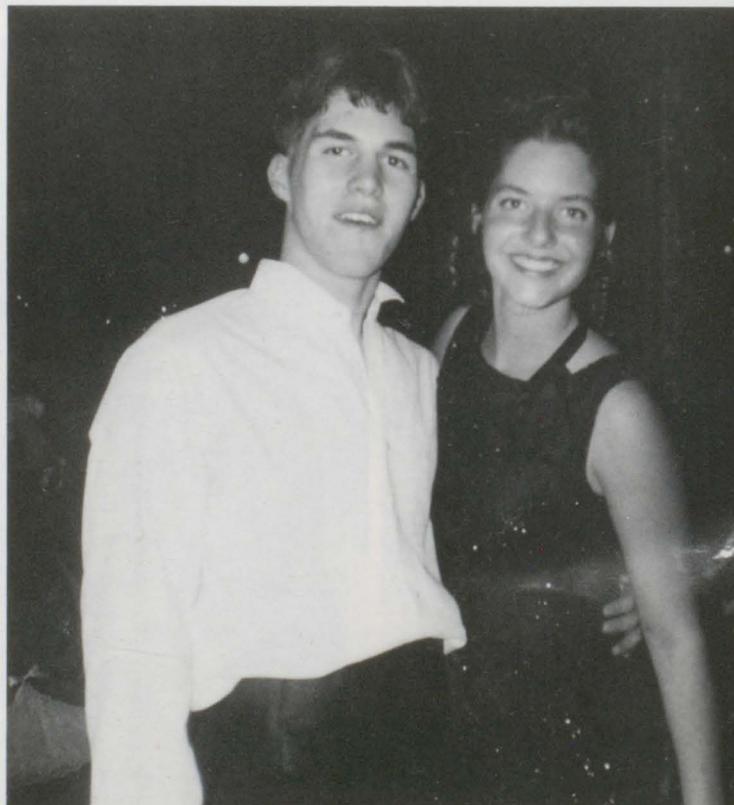

The exceptionally well decorated Washington Elementary School gymnasium was filled with students enjoying themselves. The disc jockey was Strictly Business. With them they brought a karokee machine which had never been used before at a Marysville High School Prom.

President of the Junior class, Patty Pozios, took a lot of her time trying to make the Junior Prom one night that will never be forgotten. Her hard work and frustration turned into a successful night.

Shannon Palmateer has a great time at her Junior Prom at the Washington School.

Angela Tomalo and Lisa Bonner having an exciting time dancing with one another.

Kim Luckritz and Michelle Erdmann making the night unforgettable by keeping the party alive.

Ryan Cooley and Patty Pozios dance to the Junior Prom theme song "How Do You Talk To An Angel?"

Charlie Jakubiak and Kevin Burkhardt might not be "the Blues Brothers" but they are the best of friends.

Darren Smarch & Lisa Holowitz Reign

Prince Darren Smarch

Darren Smarch was selected by his classmates to reign as the 1992 Sophomore Homecoming Prince.

Darren said, "I enjoyed getting dressed-up the most about homecoming." Darren also stated that he enjoyed all of the homecoming activities.

When Darren found out that he would be on the Homecoming Court he said that he was surprised and honored that he was chosen.

Darren is active in school athletics. He participates in football, basketball, and baseball.

While in school, Darren enjoys being with friends.

Darren was escorted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary and Brenda Smarch.

Princess Lisa Holowitz

Lisa Holowitz was selected by her classmates to reign as the 1992 Sophomore Homecoming Princess.

When asked what she enjoyed most about homecoming, Lisa said, "It had to be the dance, but I also enjoyed the parade."

Lisa was very surprised when her selection as the Sophomore Princess was announced.

Lisa is a member of the band and her class steering committee.

Her favorite classes are English and Spanish.

In her free time, Lisa enjoys spending time with her family and friends.

Lisa was escorted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary and Roxanne Holowitz.

Float is #1

The 1992-1993 First Place In Float Building championship went to the Sophomore Class.

The sophomore float featured a sunken pirate ship that symbolized the Viking opponents, the Titans of Jackson Lumen Christi.

The ship had been sunk by the Vikings of Marysville.

The championship in the float building competition marked the second year in a row that the Class of 1995 has reigned as winners of the float building competition.

The float was built and constructed this year at the home of Bill Slota.

Freshmen Royalty

Jessica Stephens

Aaron Quain

This year's freshman homecoming princess was Jessica Stephens. She was escorted by her parents Durnell and Sandy Stephens. She felt very proud and honored to be chosen to represent her class. Jessica was also supported by her two sisters, Tarah Stephens and Azure Denby.

Jessica was involved in activities in and out of school — band, steering committee, student council, and roller skating.

While in school she enjoys meeting new people and school activities.

Jessica has some goals for the future. She plans on attending college and hopes to obtain a degree in education.

Aaron Quain was proud to be Prince for the freshmen class this year. He was escorted by his parents Pat and Deanne Quain.

Aaron comes from a large family and is the youngest.

Aaron is very active in sports in school as well as out of school. He plays football and basketball. He also enjoys snow and water skiing.

When Aaron was asked what he liked most about Homecoming he stated that he enjoyed everything. When Aaron is in school he enjoys being with his friends the most. Aaron also has future plans to attend a small college and then transfer to a large university.

Freshmen Float

"Eat 'Em Up" was the slogan of the 1992 freshmen homecoming float. The float received fourth place in the float building contest. The float was built at Anthony LaGruth's home.

The freshmen class put forth an outstanding effort to make their float the best.

They had great class organization, a friendly spirit, and cooperation.

Anthony stated, "It was a lot of fun. I think everyone enjoyed themselves and cooperated very well."

Freshmen class advisor, Mr. William Goetz said, "I'm glad the kids enjoyed themselves. Maybe next year we will have a winning float."

Charisse Moncher stated, "It was a lot of hard work because we are freshmen. We had fun and I know our float will be a lot better as sophomores."

National Honor Society

This year's National Honor Society consisted of 42 members. They sold carnations during homecoming. That money helped support the members that went to "The Phantom of the Opera" in Toronto on December 3, 1992. They bought presents for a family for Christmas. They helped at Woodlands for two days in the winter. Members went to see a Townhouse speaker in February. They did a community service in the Spring. The induction for the National Honor Society was held in May.

The officers of NHS were: President Kelly Wypych, Vice President Lisa Bonner, Secretary Taylor Weymouth, Historian Jill Pond, Activities Amy Cutler, Treasurer Michelle LaGruth, Community Director Ryan Greenwood, Honor Coordinator Todd Maxwell.

S.A.D.D.

Marcie Struthers and Jamie Robison help this year's SADD chapter assemble luminaries.

A group of SADD members were chosen to dress up as "dead" people on white-out day.

FACE THE FACTS

Lori Kott was chosen to dress up on white-out day as part of a SADD activity.

This year's S.A.D.D. chapter was under the direction of president Michelle LaGruth, vice-president Jodi Demeter, and secretary/treasurer Kristie Heering.

The group had a white-out day this year. Chosen students dressed up in all white and they couldn't talk to anyone. They had to act as if they were dead so their fellow classmates could see what it would be like if they really were.

Eight students, six juniors and two seniors were selected for Peer Resistance Skills. Those selected were: Patty Pozios, Ryan Cooley, Dana VanDyke, Sera Young, Dave Jolicoeur, Ethan Fraley, Michelle LaGruth and Matt Ressler. They were trained to teach fifth and sixth graders to say "No" to the pressures of alcohol in an assertive way.

STATE

Senior Captain #76 Jon Wright instructs the defensive squad on a Flivver's fourth down.

"Till Dome Do Us Part"

The Marysville Viking Varsity Football team won the Class B State Championship for the second time in the school's history.

To get there, the Vikings first qualified by posting a season record of 8-1.

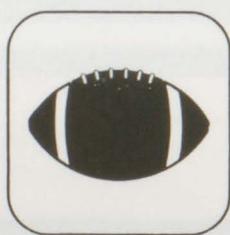

The first two state tournament games were held at Viking Stadium. First, Marysville beat Clawson 46-0, then Riverview 34-8.

Next came the Montrose Rams who fell 20-12 at Port Huron's Memorial Stadium. This earned the team a trip to the Silverdome and a chance at the state championship.

In August, the Vikes dreamed of being "Champs". Then on November 27, 1992, the dream became reality. Under the direction of Coach Walt Braun the Vikings beat the Kingsford Flivvers 21-12 and claimed the championship.

The scoreboard says it all "Congratulations 1992 Class "B" State Champions! You deserve it!!!!"

The team runs off the "turf" after warm-ups, ready to take on the Flivvers.

How many high school students can do their banking at school? We can.

If you wander down the main hall you will be able to visit your new Educational & Associates Credit Union office.

It was opened on November 3, 1992. That date will mark a milestone for the "Partners in Education" program sponsored by Educational & Associates Credit Union of Marysville and Port Huron and the Marysville Public Schools System.

"Its purpose is to provide financial service to both students and teachers while educating students on the many important aspects of personal financial management", says Educational & Associates Credit Union's Senior Vice-President, Linda Biedinger.

The office is open two days a week, Tuesdays and Fridays to provide full financial services including savings programs, checking and loans.

There is one full time credit union employee, Heidi Fegge, and a co-op student, Robert Fowler.

Three Learn A New Culture

This year Marysville High School was host to three foreign exchange students: Patrick Mueller, Martha Arias, and Ryoko Kobayashi.

Patrick, who is from Geneva, Switzerland, is spending the year with John and Kathy Wesch. He came to the United States leaving one older sister behind.

What Patrick likes most about Marysville High School is that he can choose his own classes.

At Patrick's school in Switzerland, his school week consists of different classes every day. Students stay in the same room all day and the teachers change classrooms.

When he returns to Switzerland, Patrick plans to attend college to study anthropology.

Martha is from Quito, Ecuador. Her host family is Roger and Linda Bundy and their sons Roger and Chad. In Ecuador, Martha has two older brothers and one older sister.

Martha's school in Ecuador is very different from Marysville High. They have to wear school uniforms and they have fourteen different classes. All of those classes are chosen by the school staff. As in Patrick's school Martha and her classmates stay in the same class all day.

Martha said, "I can't say there are bad things about the United States because compared to my country they are just different". She likes the United States because it's a nice country full of friendly people with whom she had lots of fun.

After she returns to Ecuador Martha plans to go to a college in Argentina to study graphic design or advertising.

The Staff Gets Involved

Charisse Moncher and Mr. John Knuth take a short break during health class.

Mrs. Lucienne Kiefer is busy working at her desk during an English 11 class.

Mrs. Tina Seddon, student council advisor, helps in getting the Homecoming parade on its way.

Mr. Jim Venia shows his school spirit during "Tourist Day" of Homecoming week.

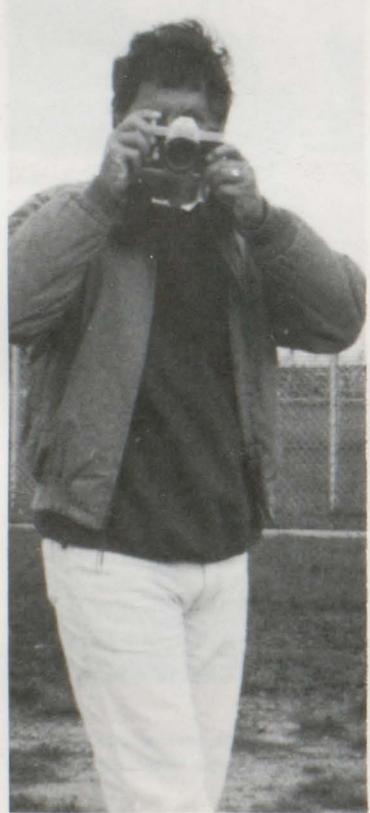

Mr. Greg Marsh uses his computer in his office to prepare for his Math class.

Miss Marilyn Fedraw shows her school spirit by dressing up as a clown hockey player for the parade.

The staff is always on the GO!

Mr. David Schmorow takes another photograph for the Marysville Viking yearbook.

Mr. Mac Domke, Media Specialist, puts away an audio visual extension cord.

Counseling Department - Action!

Counselor Mr. Mike Patterson assists Junior Sarah Fults on making a schedule change.

Mrs. Joyce Blackney and Mr. Michael Patterson are the Marysville High School counselors.

Part of their job is to assist students with their concerns involving education. They work hard throughout the year to try and achieve all their goals. They are concerned about the well-being of the students.

They ensure that students make the right choices in regards to schedules, colleges, and career choices. They also assist students who wish to join the military. Helping students with problems and concerns that they have gives them great satisfaction to see students accomplish their goals.

Kyra Freeman watches Mrs. Joyce Blackney put together an academic awards poster.

Secretaries

Their Efforts Make The High School Operate Efficiently!

Mrs. Pam Augustyn

Mrs. Carolyn Kraft

Mrs. Nancy Gorinac

Mrs. Lisa Jones

Mrs. Merlene Lindke

Mrs. Jan Schmorrow

During Homecoming week, the secretaries showed their spirit by dressing up for blue and white day.

Mrs. Carolyn Kraft answers the telephone calls in the Athletic Office.

Mrs. Nancy Gorinac is busy in the Counseling Center filling out forms for the Parent/Teacher Conferences.

Cooks, Bus Drivers, And ## Maintenance

They bring us here, take us home, feed us, and keep our building right!

Mrs. Barbara MacPherson prepares for B-lunch by getting things organized in the kitchen.

Mr. "Baldy" Kelch empties the garbage cans after both lunch periods are over.

Mrs. Maxine Smith washes a big stack of dirty dishes after both lunch periods.

The Marysville bus drivers sit proudly next to their float during the Homecoming Parade.

The Student Center.

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, we say...

By: Boyz II Men

How do I say goodbye to what we had?
The good times that made us laugh,
always came back.
I thought we’d get to see forever,
but forever’s gone away.
It’s so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

I don’t know where this road is going to lead.
All I know is where we’ve been, and what we’ve been through.
If we get to see tomorrow, I hope it’s worth
all the pain.
It’s so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

And I’ll take with me the memories, to be my sunshine after the rain.
It’s so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
